

Present Perfect Simple vs. Present Perfect Progressive

4. Abschluss:

Lösungen auf Seite 4

Complete the dialogue. Use the Present Perfect Simple or the Present Perfect Progressive:

(Vervollständige den Dialog. Verwende das Present Perfect Simple oder das Present Perfect Progressive)

1. „Let’s go to Brighton this year. We _____ (have) a lot of work this year and I _____ (never / be) there before.“

2. „Great idea! I _____ (always / want to) there, too.

Look! I _____ (buy) myself some new shoes.“

3. „Oh yes. Those are great. I _____ (look) for shoes like that for weeks now. Where _____ (you /

buy) them?“

4. „I _____ (look) for quite a long time, too. I

_____ (find) them in a little shop in Salzburg.“

5. „_____ (you / see) George during last week?

He _____ (not / be) to school for a few days.“

6. „Look! There he comes. Hi, George? What _____

(you / do) all week? The teachers _____ (already / ask) where you _____ (be).“

7. „We'll I _____ (be) sick for a few days. But the teachers don't have to worry. I _____ (do) all my homework for tomorrow. I _____ (work)

all morning.“

Translate the sentences. Mind the tenses! (Übersetze! Achte auf die Zeitform!)

8. Wir wohnen jetzt schon 12 Jahre lang in diesem Haus.

_____ .

9. Seit letzter Woche lese ich ein Buch über Schottland.

_____ .

10. Jimmy hat schon wieder sein Gemüse nicht gegessen!

Lösungen:

1) have had / have never been 2) have always wanted to / have bought 3) have been looking / have you bought 4) have been looking / have found 5) Have you seen / hasn't been 6) have you been doing / have already asked / have been 7) have been / have done / have been working 8) We have been living in this house for 12 years now. 9) Since last week I have been reading a book about Scotland. 10) Jimmy hasn't eaten his vegetables again!